

HELI YOGA

A backcountry yoga experience to bring you closer to nature

EXPERIENCE

A new, private experience, to bring you closer to nature in the most peaceful yoga setting you could imagine.

Your private yoga class will start with a flight to the remote Beverley lake on the back side of Rainbow mountain. There, we have a large flat shoreline next to the shimmering blue waters where a trained yoga instructor will guide you through the methodical movements to make you feel at home in the mountains. With 1.5 hours of time at the mountaintop, this will give you plenty of time for a 60 minute yoga session, as well as some time for photo ops and dipping your toes in the glacier fresh water.

$1,780 + GST for up to 4 guests

Available every day at 9:00 am.

If you prefer a later start time or have a larger group, please call or email us to book.

HELI HIKING

A private scenic adventure in your very own alpine meadow

EXPERIENCE

Our exclusive tenure in Southwest British Columbia, which encompasses eight different mountain regions, permits our team of ACMG guides to choose heli-hiking terrain that suits your ability level and personal goals. BC has some of the greatest hiking in the world and on a day of heli hiking you'll get to combine the thrill of flying high above the mountains with the ease of accessing some of the best terrain! Heli hikes can be for those wanting an easy trek with incredible views, or for those that want to tackle harder terrain - with a head-start on the elevation. A delicious mountain-style lunch will be provided for your day in this incredible terrain filled with diverse geology and ecology.
